

Join us for Presentations and Conversations Pertaining to Therapeutic Implications of Parent Loss in Childhood and Adolescence

Marking the new publication:

Healing after Parent Loss in Childhood and Adolescence:
Therapeutic Interventions and Theoretical Consideration

Edited by Phyllis Cohen, K. Mark Sossin and Richard Ruth

When: Sunday, May 4th, 2014

5:00pm – 7:30pm

Where: Pace University

Bianco Room, 3 Spruce Street, New York City

(across from City Hall, enter Spruce Street entrance, between Park Row and Gold Street). This is the same entrance one would enter for the Schimmel Hall Theater.

Refreshments will be served.

(RSVP: pacepsychologynyc@pace.edu)

Phyllis Cohen, K. Mark Sossin and Richard Ruth will lead with presentations on the topic of early parent loss—in child, adolescent and adult psychotherapy, as well as in consultative work with surviving caregivers, and less traditional settings. Several chapter authors will be presenting and welcoming discussion.

Following the presentation/discussion, we will proceed with a more informal gathering of attendees.
